Fall 2014

Instructor:	Dr. Allison Harris Office: Moulton Hall 312C Telephone: 309-438-5246 Email: aharris@phy.ilstu.edu Office Hours: Monday through Thursday 1:30-2:30pm, or by appointment
Course Description and Objectives:	An introduction to the disciplines of physics and engineering and to selected topics in those fields.
Textbook:	None
Mathematica:	Mathematica is required for this course. Students may install a free copy from https://user.wolfram.com/portal/login.html . Further instructions will be provided in class.
Course Components:
Homework:	Will be assigned regularly. You may be required to complete some assignments during the class period, while others may be completed outside of class. No late assignments will be accepted, however, the lowest homework score will be dropped when calculating your grade.
Attendance:	Regular and punctual attendance is expected during every class meeting. You are responsible for material missed in your absence, and lecture notes must be obtained from a classmate. The use of cell phones (talking, texting, etc.) during class will not be allowed. Cell phones must remain in your pocket or bag, and must be on silent or powered off during class.
Grading:	Your grade for this course will be based entirely upon homework. This course is a credit/no credit course, and a final grade above 60% is considered passing. In other words, Grade \geq 60% = credit Grade $<$ 60% = no credit

Plagiarism and Cheating: Academic integrity is an important part of this University and this course. Students are expected to be honest in all academic work, and a student's placement of his or her name on any academic exercise shall be regarded as assurance that the work is the result of the student's own thought, effort, and study. Students who have questions regarding issues of academic dishonesty should refer to the Code of Student Conduct, B1, which outlines unacceptable behaviors in academic matters. In certain circumstances (such as cheating or plagiarism), I may be required to refer a student to Community Rights and Responsibilities for a violation of Illinois State University's Code of Student Conduct.

Students with Disabilities: Any student needing to arrange a reasonable accommodation for a documented disability should contact Disability Concerns at 350 Fell Hall, 309-438-5853, www.disabilityconcerns.ilstu.edu.
